

Frida painted many self-portraits.

Frida was proud to look different, and painted her moustache and bushy eyebrows into her self-portraits.

Frida explored themes of identity in her work.

Frida was disabled by polio as a child and also had a bad bus accident when she was 18. Before the bus accident, Frida was training to be a doctor. When she was bed-ridden and unable to continue her training, she spent her time painting instead.

Frida Kahlo (1907 – 1954)

Frida was born in Mexico, but also lived in the USA.

Frida liked to paint nature.

Many of Frida's paintings showed themes of disability and illness.

